Requirements for the Minor in Art History

The minor program in Art History requires the completion of a minimum of fifteen semester hours in Art History, consisting of courses beyond the 100-level. At least one course must be taken in four or five areas of the history of art: ancient, medieval, renaissance/baroque, modern and non-western. At least one of the five courses must be at the 300-level or above. One of the requirements may be fulfilled by an appropriate course in Architectural History at the 2000-level or above.

Courses taken at any time during the student's career may be counted toward the minor, including those earned while studying abroad or in summer session. At the time of graduation, a student must have achieved in the minor courses a minimum GPA. of 2.0. A student interested in the minor program must obtain the approval of a departmental undergraduate major advisor.
